How do I add an Employers for programmes under CCP Enterprise?

Via  PROGRAMMES Tab on the left menu

- Search and click on  for the CCP that you wish to add an Employer for
- Key in Employer's Unique Entity Number (UEN) in the text box and click

Participating Employers

- Click  to confirm the changes.

Why is the Employer not found under 'Participating Employers'?

The Employer has not been onboarded to AMS yet

- Click on the  MANAGE ROLES tab on the left menu
- Under 'Partner Details', click  and search for Employer's UEN
- Select Employer's UEN and click

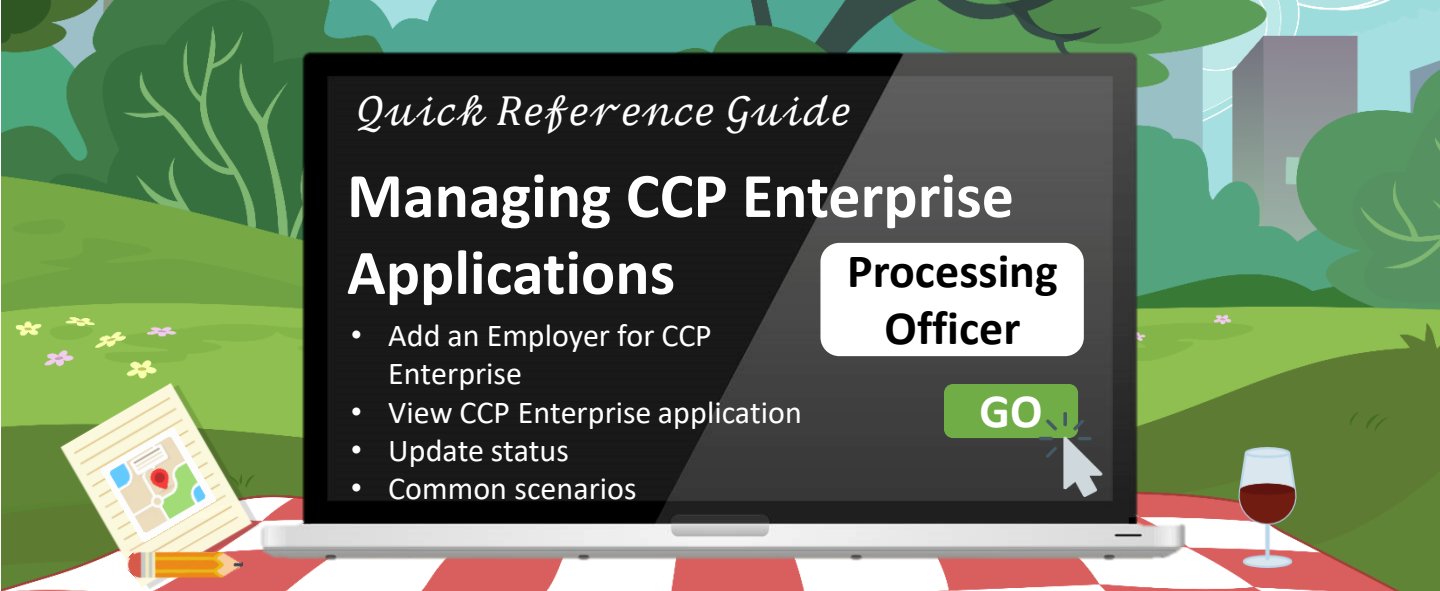

Partner Details

In this section, you can search and onboard a new organisation into the system.

- Once imported, refer to the first section to add the Employer to the designated CCP.

How do I view CCP Enterprise applications?

Via 'Initiated By'

Under 'Application Listing', you will find the 'Initiated By' column that indicates who first triggered the CCP application.

APPLICATION ID	NAME	NRIC	INITIATED BY	SUBMITTED ON	LAST ACTED ON	STATUS	ACTION
----------------	------	------	--------------	--------------	---------------	--------	--------

- If the application's 'Initiated By' column is filled by a company name, it is a CCP Enterprise application.
- If the application's 'Initiated By' column is filled by 'Individual', it is a CCP Individual application.

What is 'Indicative Vacancy'?

Placement Vacancy

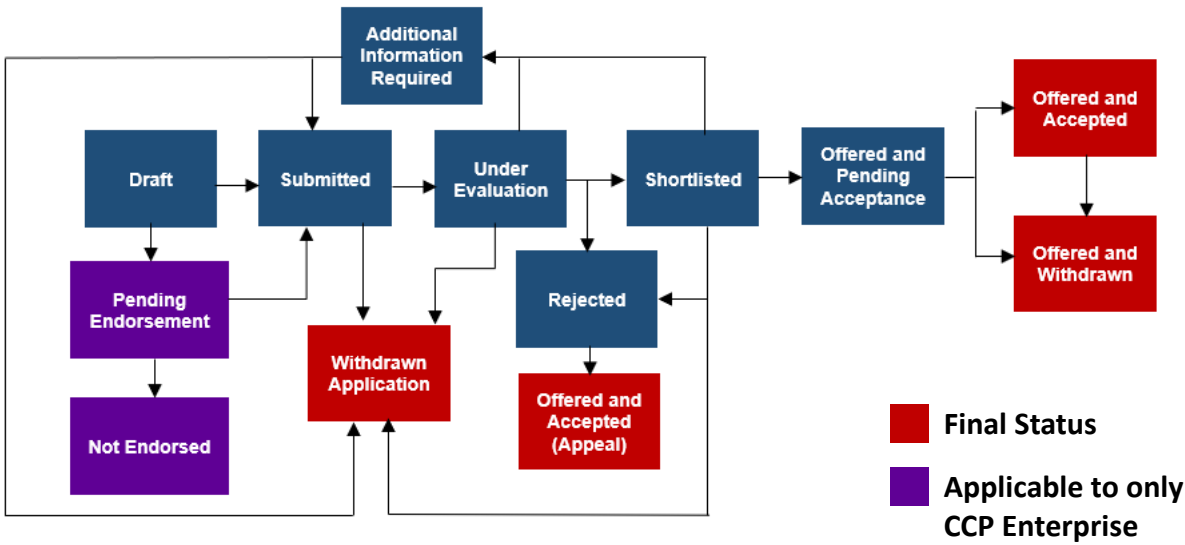

'Indicative Vacancy' is displayed when you are updating an application status to 'Offered and Accepted' and serves as an indicative tool to display the number of vacancies available for each participating employer.

Indicative Vacancy Vacancy is an indicative number, placements are still allowed even if "vacancy" is zero. Placement company UEN must match the Employer UEN to take up the vacancy.
COMPANY	UEN	REMAINING VACANCY
WORKFORCE SINGAPORE AGENCY	T08GB0060H	10

- There is no action required from you though to just note that every application with 'Offered and Accepted' will lower the vacancy number by 1 and placements can still be made even if remaining vacancy is 0.

What are the different statuses available for CCP Enterprise?

Application Status Flow (CCP Enterprise)

Note:

- Submitted applications via employer invitations will be set to 'Pending Endorsement' automatically.
- Upon employer's endorsement, the application flow follows the usual CCP status flow to 'Submitted'.

Did you know?

There is no action required from you when the application status is 'Pending Endorsement', it is pending the employer's action. Similarly, there is no action required from you for 'Not Endorsed'.

What does the different statuses mean for CCP Enterprise?

Refer to the table below for the different application statuses and their description for CCP Enterprise

Status	Description
Pending Endorsement	Applicant has submitted the application and pending endorsement by their employer
Not Endorsed	Applicant has submitted the application and their employer has decided to not endorse the application
